“ONE IN FIVE HUNDRED” FILM SCREENING

One In Five Hundred is a 54-minute, community-driven, environmental documentary chronicling the devastating floods that affected Yellowstone National Park and its surrounding gateway communities in June of 2022.

PANEL DISCUSSION

Following the film, there will be a panel discussion with the filmmaker and panelists who directly experienced the Yellowstone flood and the 1964 flood in Flathead County.

Panelists include:

- Hugo Sindelar: One in 500 filmmaker and MSU Assistant Professor of Film
- Bill Berg: Retired Park County Commissioner and Gardiner businessman
- Bruce Young: Lakeside Realtor who surveyed the 1964 flood by air with his father
- Shirley Rogers Folkwein: Columbia Falls resident whose family farm was partially inundated in 1964
